MAP OF THE SEAT OF WAR.—We furnish the readers of the Sentinel, to-day, with a map of the Seat of War on the Danube and Black Sea. It is not as perfect a map as we wished to give them, but has been made considerably better than the original, from which it has been engraved on wood, by P. L. Mason, of this city. The leading places are clearly marked upon it, however, and such of our readers as have not a better map at hand will find this one to aid them materially in following the fortunes of the war.

From our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, April 19th.

Almost May—sweet balmy May—and the earth is buried in snow; instead of swelling buds and sprouting leaves, the trees and shrubs are encrusted with ice. So severe a storm of snow and wind, so late in the season, I scarcely remember. Here and hereabouts, however, it will not, I think, do harm to crops of any sort—for vegetation was too little advanced, happily, to be materially injured. South of us, where too the storm has prevailed, it will be otherwise, and the first blossoms of peaches especially will have been fatally nipped. The Arctic steamer was lucky in getting in early on Sunday morning, thus escaping the worst of the gale which prevailed all that day and the following night very violently. The intelligence by this steamer adds nothing new to our preceding accounts, except the somewhat inexplicable movement of the Russians in crossing the Danube in force, towards its mouth, and placing themselves in a low, flat, wet country—between Danube and the Sea, without any apparent motive—for the combined fleets, having the mastery in Black Sea, can cut off the Russians from supplies in that quarter, and harass their movements as they approach, if they mean to approach the Balkan. Varna on the Sea, Silistria on the Danube, and Shumla between the two, but nearer to the Balkan, are all strong places—well garrisoned, and two of them, at least, easily reinforced—and they must all be carried before the Russians can advance with any safety into the passes of the Balkan, where every step might, by a people intent upon resistance to all extremities, be severely contested.

From the Baltic there is no further news of the combined fleets. The Gulf of Finland was as yet fast-bound in ice—so no demonstration could be made either against Reval—where one large detachment of the Russian navy is frozen up, or against Cronstadt, which is the chief naval station, at the bottom of the Gulf of Finland, and is at the same time the citadel and outpost of St. Petersburg. Meantime it is conjectured that Admiral Napier, who is of a hot temper and daring, may make an attack on some of the Islands, strongly fortified near the coast—that of Oesel perhaps—midway between Riga and Revel—or Aland, at the entrance of the Gulf of Bothnia, opposite Abo, if the ice permit. He will certainly lose no opportunities. One cannot read the debates in Parliament, on occasion of the Declaration of war, without being struck with two facts—first, that the war is most popular, and secondly, that it is entered upon by the more thoughtful Statesmen of the country, with almost ominous forebodings that it will be a long and costly war, with issues, as to the fate of Europe, far more uncertain than in any war heretofore undertaken by England.

All these considerations tend more and more to the conviction that if we are only wise, we may avoid damage and possibly reap benefit from the troubles of Europe. This wisdom is rendered all the easier, by reason of the renunciation for the time being, by both France and England, the great maritime powers, of the most offensive rights heretofore exercised by belligerents, as the search for and confiscation of enemies' goods on board neutral vessels. This right of search each has now agreed to limit to articles contraband of war, and as this is a clear, necessary and indisputable belligerent right, there can be no reasonable objection to submitting to it, while the refraining from issuing letters of marque and the practical acknowledgement that free bottoms make free goods, will render misunderstanding between neutral commerce and belligerent cruisers almost impossible.

Meanwhile, as I have said before, our country will be the dependence of England for the supply of any deficient harvests; and as war and emigration combined will sensibly diminish the number of laboring hands, while increasing—war especially—the number of hungry mouths to be fed—it may be assumed without risk of mistake that remunerating prices for our surplus Breadstuffs will be dominant for as long as the war lasts at least.

The stirring events in the Old World have entirely diverted attention latterly from Washington and the wiseacres there assembled.

It is said both the President and Mr. Douglas declare that a Nebraska Bill, favoring Slavery, shall pass—but their power to say shall is, I think, very much crippled—yet while there is a doubt, no effort to counteract the crime of extending Slave Territory should be intermitted.

DAILY MAILS.—Several of the small villages of Marquette and Columbia Counties are constantly complaining of the want of a daily mail; and their short distance from Milwaukee would seem to render it an easy matter to reach them by stage the same day of starting from Milwaukee. Kingston, Granville, and Mackford in Marquette County could be easily reached by ten o'clock at night in good going, and the advantages to those places would be great, from a daily communication with Milwaukee. There will be a great deal of travel this summer to these villages and would it not be profitable to Messrs. More & Davis to let their stages continue on from Fox Lake?

We have been requested to notice this want, by several merchants and residents of these villages and surrounding country, and do so with our own knowledge, that a large tide of emigration &c. will flow to this part of our State during the coming summer.

DEATH OF HON. JOHN DAVIS.—Hon. John Davis, for many years U. S. Senator from Massachusetts, and colleague of Daniel Webster, died at his residence in Worcester, Mass., on the 19th inst. He died of Bilious Cholic, after an illness of only a few hours.

MORE APPOINTMENTS.—We hear it rumored that the Governor has appointed Mr. BEALEY, of Jefferson, to some Secretaryship, Commissionership or what not, in a new Bureau, cooked up during the late Session, to take charge of the School and University lands. Will the State Paper inform us if the rumor is true, what office Mr. Bealey holds, what salary he receives, and by what authority the Governor has made the appointment?

PENNSYLVANIA.—The bill for the sale of the main line of the public works for $10,000,000 has finally passed both branches of the Legislature, and has been sent to the Governor for his signature.

The Violators of the Constitution.

We have arraigned WILLIAM A. BARSTOW, Governor of this State, before the tribunal of Public opinion, upon the charge of having wilfully and wickedly violated the Constitution of the State, in appointing Members of the Legislature to offices created, or the emoluments whereof were increased, during the terms for which the said Members were elected; In support of this charge we have cited the facts, that during the Session of the Legislature just closed, laws were passed creating the offices of Lunatic Asylum Commissioners and Private Secretary of the Governor and increasing the emoluments of the latter office from $400 to $1000 a year; that Gov. BARSTOW appointed to fill these offices Senators VITTUM, MCLANE and HESTER, all three Members of the Legislature which "created" the offices aforesaid, elected for the term of two years, and whose terms do not expire till the 1st Monday in January next; and we have cited the following express provision of the Constitution, forbidding the appointments so made:

"No Member of the Legislature shall during the term for which he was elected, be appointed or elected to any civil office in the State, which shall have been created or the emoluments of which shall have been increased, during the term for which he was elected." (Sect 12, Art IV Constitution of Wisconsin.

To this charge and specifications the Madison Democrat, official organ of the State Administration, which fully approves and justifies the appointments complained of, pleads, in behalf of the Governor, "not guilty" and on the following grounds:

1st. That the office of Private Secretary was not created, nor the emoluments increased during the last Session.

2nd. That the offices of Private Secretary and Lunatic Asylum Commissioners are not "civil offices" in the intent of law, or immeaning of the Constitution.

3d. That the terms of the Senators, appointed to these offices, expired with the adjournment of the Legislature.

Our answer to the first point is, that no law exists authorizing the appointment of a Private Secretary, except the law of the last Session.—That law therefore, "created" the office. As to the "emoluments," the Governor has hitherto been allowed $600 for clerk-hire, which constituted the salary of the person, who discharged the duties and wore the title of Private Secretary.—The law of the last Session increases this amount to $1000 and its title declares the object to be, "to provide for an increase of the salary of the Private Secretary." Need another word be said on that point?

We answer to the third point, that the Constitution declares that "Senators shall be chosen for the term of two years;" that the Senators named were elected in the fall of 1852 and that their term of office began on the first Monday in January 1853 and does not expire, therefore, till the first Monday in January next. Can any pettifogging get round this fact?

Lastly we reply to the second point by citing the decision of Chief Justice MARSHALL and the definitions from Tomlin's Law Dictionary, as to what constitutes a "civil office:"

An office is defined to be "a public charge or employment," and he who performs the duties of the office, is an officer. If employed on the part of the United States, he is an officer of the United States. Although an office is "an employment," it does not follow that every employment is an office. A man may certainly be employed under a contract, express or implied, to do an act, or perform a service, without becoming an officer. But if a duty be a continuing one, which is defined by rules prescribed by the government, and not by contract, which an individual is appointed by government to perform, who enters on the duties appertaining to his station, without any contract defining them, if those duties continue, tho' the person be changed, it seems very difficult to distinguish such a charge or employment from an office, or the person who performs the duties from an officer (Brocken brough's Reports vol. 20, pp. 103, 104. The U. S. vs. Maurice et al.)

An office is defined to be a right to exercise a public or private employment, and to take the fees and emoluments there-unto belonging &c.—(Tomlin's Law Dictionary Vol. 2d. p. 635 title "Office.")

Officers are public or private: and it is said that every man is a public officer, who hath any duty concerning the public; and he is not the less a public officer where his authority is confined to narrow limits; because it is the duty of his office, and the nature of that duty which makes him a public officer, and not the extent of his authority.—ib.

OFFICE—That function by virtue whereof a man hath some employment in the affairs of another &c.

Officers are distinguished into civil and military, according to the nature of their several trusts. —ib.

We have cited these definitions and the decision of Chief Justice MARSHALL, for the benefit of the Madison Democrat. We shall not so insult the common sense of the People of this state as to suppose that they need any such aids to determine whether or no WILLIAM A. BARSTOW violated the Constitution, which he had sworn to support, when he appointed Senators to offices which their own votes had helped to create.

RACINE AGAINST LAND GRABS.—We have already stated that our neighbors at Racine had a large and spirited meeting last week at which strong resolutions condemning the Land Grab policy, were unanimously adopted. The Racine Democrat publishes the proceedings of the meeting in full, with the following comments:

We rejoice to see this movement of our people against the monster system of wholesale Land Robbery which Railroad Corporations are endeavoring to force upon the people. We would regard it as one of the greatest public calamities if the numerous Bills for granting public lands to corporations now pressed upon Congress, were to pass. The consequences to the new States would be disastrous in the extreme. The poor would be at the mercy of the Capitalists, and his rightful inheritance taken from him. The whole principle of granting lands to Corporations is in direct opposition to Republicanism, it creates a power which enables the holder to withhold the Lands from market, and when sold it is at prices far beyond its actual value. The settlement of the Country is greatly retarded, and generally such appropriations are not faithfully used for the end designed.

Our State would suffer beyond measure. Near two millions of acres would pass into the hands of a company, who have by their course lost the confidence of the honest portion of community; who have for years practised fraud as a profession, and finding themselves suddenly on the brink of total ruin, seek, in this manner, to gain means to fill their already well-lined pockets to depletion. Honest men who have trusted them have lost their all. It has been used as a vast political engine, and sought to mould our Legislature so that they would move as its beck and nod; and now it has its Lobby and well-paid hirelings at Washington seeking by every means in their power to force from Congress a grant of Land to aid the Company in its nefarious practices. Self-preservation requires the citizens of this State to act energetically in this matter AT ONCE. Too long already has this sore upon the "body politic" been suffered to exist. Let the people arise in their might and crush it out of existence. Speak, in terms unmistakable, your decided disapprobation of the base design which the R. R. V. Union Railroad Company would seek to practice upon you, and save our State from one of the greatest public calamities which ever threatened to befall it.

FIRE AT CHICAGO.—The Commercial Block near the Randolph Street bridge, Chicago, was pretty much destroyed by fire on Saturday morning last. It was owned by W. H. STOWE, whose loss is estimated at $10,000, and Insurance $4,000. Messrs. Dodge & Collar, lessees of the Commercial Hotel, are fully insured. E. B. Kingsley, and Charles Townsend, who occupied two of the stores, were losers to an extent not yet ascertained. E. L. O'Hara, Drug Store, loss $1,000, fully insured. W. Whitehall, Liquor Store, loss unknown, insurance $2,000. N. Webber & Son, slight loss. Besides the above, a small German Saloon and an empty store, lately occupied by A. Salisbury, were destroyed by the flames.

A BOUQUET FOR AN EXPRESS.—The Horticultural Society of Toulouse recently presented to the Empress Eugenie of France a bouquet, containing ten thousand violets and three hundred camelias, of which the diameter was upwards of three-quarters of a yard and the height more than a yard. The centre was a dome of violets, surrounded by a circle of camelias; the whole surmounted by a crown. On the dome appear the initials of the Empress in orange blossoms and white paquerettes.

Good News—Important Railroad Arrangement.

News was received in this city yesterday, of the successful issue of the negotiations which have been for some time pending between the Directors of the Milwaukee & Mississippi and the Southern Wisconsin Railroad Companies. The news is almost too good to be true, but we hope for the best. It is understood that the Southern Wisconsin Co. yield their intention of building their road upon a 6 foot gauge, and are to make it a 4 ft 8½ inch gauge, the same as the M. & M. J. the latter company guaranteeing the bonds of the S. W. R. R. Co. for $300,000.

We cannot but express our gratification at this result, so anxiously desired by our citizens. It is too late now to linger upon regrets that those who controlled the S. W. R. R. Co. could not, long ago, see it to be for their interest to make such an arrangement; we prefer to look forward, and to cherish the hope that, from the time when it is consummated we shall be able again to pull together with our numerous friends in Janesville and Southwestern Wisconsin for the completion of a railroad connection so important to us.

We know last winter that some of the Directors of the S. W. R. R. Co. were ready and anxious to make the above arrangement, Ex-Gov. DEWEY being prominent among them; and there is little doubt that the auspicious result is in a great measure, owing to his exertions. Mr FISCH, Atty of the M. & M. R. R. Co., has conducted the negotiations on the part of that company.

ICE IN THE STRAITS. Capt. JOHNSON, of the schooner Kitty Grant, which left Grand Traverse Bay, Michigan, on Thursday morning last, reports that the Mail carrier who left Mackinac on the 17th inst., crossed the Straits on the ice, and found it two or three feet thick. The despatch we published yesterday morning from Detroit brought two day's later news from the Straits, the captain of the Northerner reporting that the ice was solid from a short distance above Bois Blanc Island, as far as he could see. It is his opinion that the Straits would remain closed for a week or two yet.

WASHINGTON RUMORS.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Courier, under date of April 19th, writes:

"The Senate has postponed the Gadsden Treaty until Thursday, the 27th of April, with the understanding that a final vote shall be taken on that day.

The Nebraska confederates have arranged for a forced offset to pass the bill on Monday next.

The Mirror correspondent says:

The impression now is that a (Mexican) Treaty may pass. Mr. James of Rhode Island, has moved the reconsideration. The present market price of Senatorial votes is high.

Cuban affairs remain in statu quo, but the Administration is determined to give the Spanish authorities a severe overhauling.

The Correspondent of the Express reports that Congress has already begun to busy itself with arranging the next Presidential campaign; that some of the Whigs are making efforts to bring out JOHN BELL of Tennessee, as their candidate for the Presidency; and that a combination of the Southern men and Northern Hards, are talking of Mr. BUCHANAN, of Penn., for President, and Mr. BADGER, of South Carolina, for Vice President.

☞ The coasting trade of Great Britain, is now thrown open to all foreign ships, and the State Department at Washington, April 18, gives official notification of the fact. The Secretary of State says that our vessels will be subject to the same regulations as British ships so employed, and will pay no higher rates of duties, tolls, and charges. Passenger steamers, carrying passengers from one place to another, on the coast of the United Kingdom, will be subject to the provisions of the steam navigation act of 1851.

RAILROAD MONOPOLIES.—The price of wild lands along the line of the Illinois Central Railroad has at length been determined upon. The Company hold their best lands at not less than $20 per acre, and their minimum rate is $5.—This evinces the great benefit of land grants to "the poor immigrant." It places the public domain wholly beyond his reach, and leaves him scarcely a hope of obtaining a spot of earth which he can call his own.—Madison Journal.

And yet a few of the so-called "democratic" presses in this State, and our bogus democratic Administration, advocate the policy which thus enhances the price and retards the settlement of the Public Lands. Not only this; but some members of our State Administration, abandoning their posts and duties while in the pay of the People, have posted off to Washington to lobby for Land Grants, at the instance and for the benefit of Rail Road Corporations!

FIRE AT CHARLESTON S. C.—A destructive fire occurred at Charleston, South Carolina, on the 18th inst., burning eleven large stores and their contents. This loss is estimated at $400,000—amount of insurance not known.

JUST LIKE HIM.—One of our Chicago exchanges says:

We are informed that J. B. Rice, Esq. manager of the Theatre, paid all the expenses attending the death and funeral of the late Mr. G. G Germon. This speaks well for Mr. R. showing that he has a heart to alleviate misfortune, and one feeling instance that, without his knowledge, we give to the world. Such "bread cast upon the waters" will surely return.

☞ Lord PALMERSTON is reported to have said in Parliament, that "the United States have no foreign policy." The National Intelligencer contradicts his lordship's rather impertinent declaration. We have a foreign policy, says the Intelligencer, the simplest, safest, and wisest which any people ever adopted, namely, "peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all Nations, entangling alliances with none." This is the policy laid down by the Fathers of this Republic, and while it is faithfully practised by our rulers we have nothing to fear from abroad.

ICE AND COLD WEATHER AT THE NORTH.—The Green Bay Advocate publishes the following letter from Washington Island, near the entrance to Green Bay:

WASHINGTON HARBOR, April 14th, 1854.

GENTLEMEN—On the 9th ult., Nelson Clark and Albert Ross came from St. Martins, Michigan, to this place on the ice—an instance never before known. They attempted to return the same day. On the 13th, the bodies of the two unfortunate young men were found on the ice. They were brought to this place and an inquest was held.—The verdict of the jury was that they came to their death from exposure to cold.

We have had a very cold winter. There have been seventy-four days without a thaw—coldest day, 30 degrees below zero. The snow has been about three feet on a level.

There is but little ice in the Bay, and we are looking for a steamer from below soon.

Very Respectfully Yours, M. E. LYMAN.

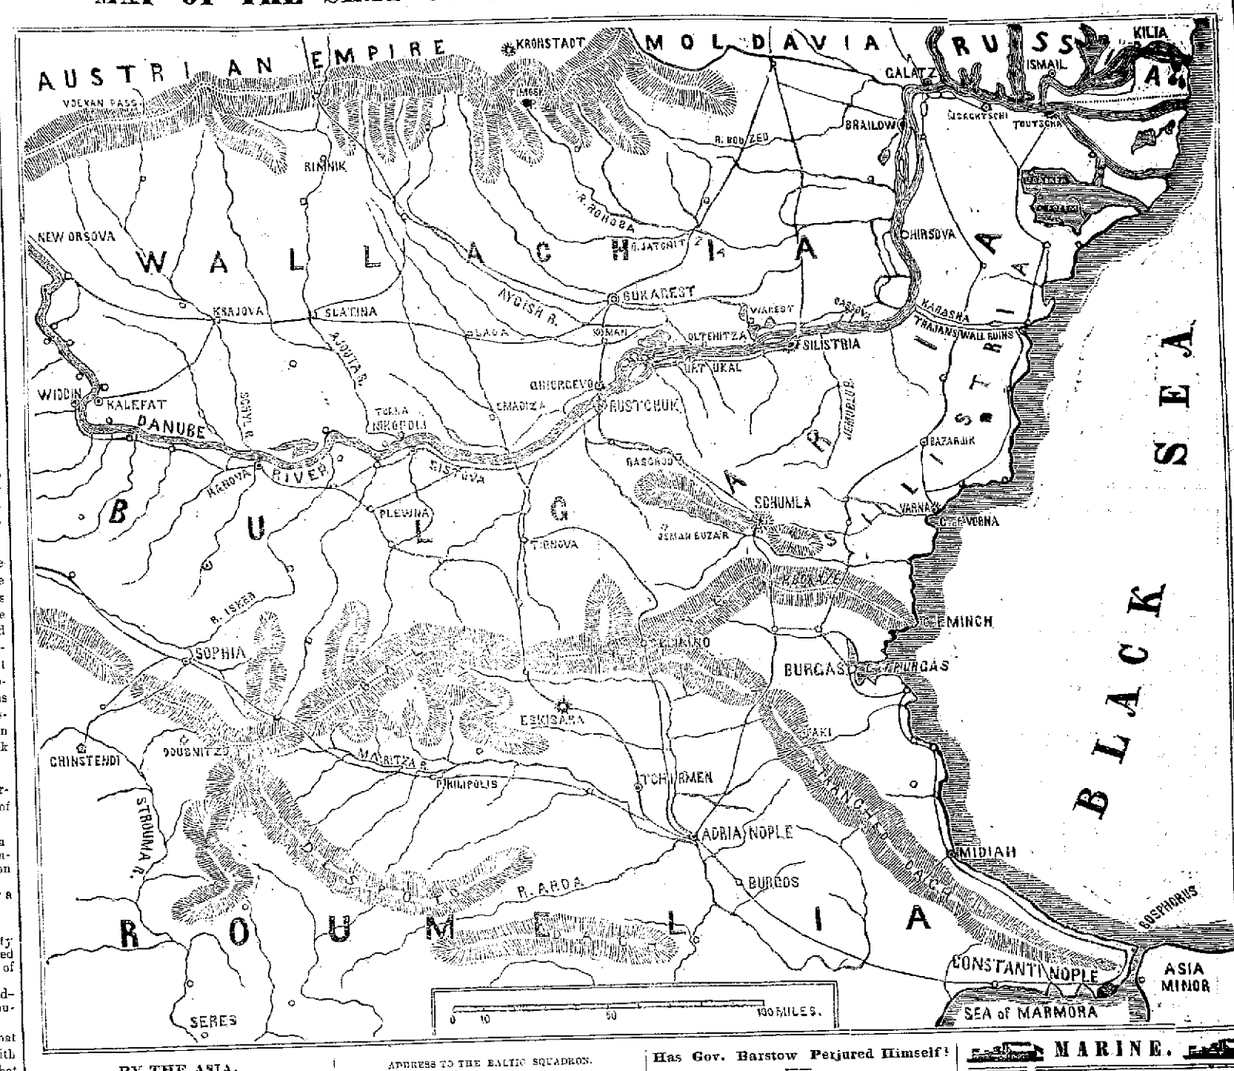
Governor Barstow, Comptroller Dennis, Attorney General Smith, Berish Brown, and H. T. Sanders, are on their way to Washington. Various reasons are assigned for the mission, but the real one, no doubt, is to help to revive the Valley Rail Road bill.—Kenosha Telegraph.

We utterly deny that such is the object of their mission. It is rather to obtain justice from the Federal Administration, for the official grievances of our People.—Wisconsin.

We should like to know when and by whom our State Administration were chosen to represent Wisconsin at the Federal Capital? Were "BARSTOW and the Balance" elected to take care of home matters, or to redress Federal grievances? By whose authority do they supersede our Senators and Representatives in Congress? At whose instigation and expense do they go to Washington? And above all what "grievances" do they complain of? The Wisconsin affects to know all about it, but seems afraid to tell. On what "secret service" are these Pilgrims to Washington bound that it will not bear the light?

SUPERINTENDENT OF THE ASYLUM. A notice appears in the Madison Democrat, inviting proposals &c., signed "GEO. R. MCLANE, M. D., Superintendent of the State Lunatic Asylum." The said Superintendent is the Senator from Waukesha County. The office was created, and a salary of $1200 provided for it, by the Legislature whereof MR. MCLANE is a Member. And GOV. BARSTOW made the appointment in utter contempt of a provision of the Constitution expressly forbidding such abuse of Executive Patronage!

MAP OF THE SEAT OF WAR ON THE DANUBE AND BLACK SEA.



BY THE ASIA.

Details of foreign News.

The London Globe of the 7th inst., adds to the information of the seizure of two screw steam frigates, built by order of the Russian Consul General, the fact of further seizures having been made, in the interval, of a very considerable quantity of machinery intended for the Russian service, comprising a large portion of the machinery intended for the equipment of the frigates now under capture, and engines designed for exportation to Russian ports, in which ships of war are now being built. The total value of the last seizure is estimated at about £100,000. The engineers by whom the contracts were entered into have shown no disposition to evade or deny their responsibilities.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times writes on Thursday evening, the 6th inst:—Despatches were received to-day at the Turkish embassy from Vienna, (for their accuracy I do not vouch,) confirming what was said yesterday about the defeat of the Russian General Uschakoff, and the retreat of his corps in Bessarabia.

It is also stated that the forts said to have been captured are still in the hands of the Turks; that the Turks have crossed the Danube at a point between Nicopolis and Rustchuck; that 20,000 Turks are on their way to Trajan's Wall or Bossova, and 25,000 Turks for the same direction to Schumla. Reports are also rife about advantages near Kalafat, but all these have to be confirmed officially.

The Paris Patrie, states that the accounts of an advantage having been gained by the Turks on the lower Danube appeared to be confirmed. It is positive that the General in Chief of the Russian army, after the passage of his troops into the Dobrudscha, considered his position so critical that he immediately demanded reinforcements from Bessarabia, Odessa, and even Sebastopol.

According to a private letter from Constantinople the English and French squadrons entered the Black Sea on the morning of the 28th, steering in the direction of Varna. The Charlemagne was the only ship remaining at Beicos. It was reported that this measure was combined with a movement of Omar Pacha.

Mustapha Pacha was advancing his troops in three lines in the direction of Trajan's Wall.—The fleets were between Batchik and Varna on the 27th.

A despatch from Vienna affirms that the Greek government had purchased three Russian ships of war lying in the port of Trieste, with all the material of war, which was on board. The despatch states that the combined fleets were about to blockade Odessa.

A telegraphic despatch from Copenhagen confirms the intelligence of the Russians having evacuated Aland.

The Turks were not driven back on the 22d, but made a spontaneous retrograde movement.—At Tultscha, the Russians lost above 1,500 men. Two battalions were cut to pieces.

The possession of the mosques are to be declared the property of the State. The refusal of the Sheik-ul-Islam to consent to this arrangement was the cause of his deposition. All the military posts in the city have been reinforced, and strong guards patrol the streets.

DEPARTURE OF PRINCE NAPOLEON FOR TURKEY—ADDRESS TO THE SOLDIERS OF ARMOUR.—The departure of Prince Napoleon for Turkey is now fixed for the 9th. Marshal St. Arnaud expects to leave next day. The following "order of the day" has been addressed by the Marshal to the soldiers of Africa:—

"Soldiers—In a few days you are to leave for the East. You are going to defend allies unjustly attacked, and to take up the defiance flung by the Czar at the nations of the West. From the Baltic to the Mediterranean Europe will applaud your efforts and your success. You will combat side by side with the English, the Turks, and the Egyptians. You know what is due to comrades—union and cordiality in the intercourse of the camp, devotedness to the common cause on the field of battle. France and England, rivals in other times, are now friends and allies. The two countries have learned to esteem each other while combating.

United, they command the seas, and their fleets will feed the army while famine is in the camp of the enemy. The Turks and Egyptians have held out against the enemy since the commencement of the war. Alone and unaided they have beaten them in several actions. What will they not do when seconded by our battalions?

"Soldiers! The eagles of the Empire resume their flight—not to menace Europe, but to defend it. Beat them on once more, as your fathers bore them before you; and, like them, let us all, before we quit France, repeat the cry which so often led them to victory.—Vive l'Empereur!

"A. DE ST. ARNAUD, Marshal of France, Commander-in-Chief of the Army of the East."

From the Baltic Fleet.

Copenhagen, April 2.—It being public known that the British fleet had arrived from Kiel in Kioge Bay, the Danish steamer Cimbria, with 400 passengers on board, went down there on the anniversary of Nelson's bloodiest battle, 53 years ago,—the battle of Copenhagen.

Nineteen vessels lie in two lines, the smaller paddle wheel steamers ahead, and the larger ships in the second line. We sailed round the fleet, and the Danes cheered each ship, especially the Duke, with repeated hurrahs, which were answered from the fleet with louder cheers, and from two of them, the St. Jean d' Acre and the Neptune, with music.

Evidently we should have been most hospitably received on board the fleet, but the passengers of the Cimbria being so numerous, the Danes gave a proof of tact and good taste in withstanding their desire to see the interior of the ships, which would inevitably have been a great trouble to the crews, and especially the officers of the fleet.—The Danes therefore contented themselves with sailing round the fleet, singing the British National Anthem, and giving vent to their delight and sympathy by repeated cheers and hurrahs to every ship.

BERLIN, April 5.

The fleet has left Kioge Bay and sailed southwards. On Saturday the Bulldog, Cæsar and Austerlitz arrived at Gottenburg.

GALATZ, March 23.

☞ An English vessel, of 3000 qrs., loaded with Indian corn and preserved meat, was sunk by the batteries, in the neighborhood of Saxea, when passing between them whilst fighting.

ADDRESS TO THE BALTIC SQUADRON.

Vice-Admiral Parseval-Deschenes, on taking the command of the French Baltic squadron, addressed the following order of the day to the commanders, officers, and sailors:

"Called on by the Emperor to the honor of commanding you at a moment when your courage may be useful to the country, I feel the most lively satisfaction at finding myself once more in the midst of you. As I have so frequently done in my long career, I am about once more to appreciate that discipline, that devotion to their duty, and that self sacrifice of French seamen which lead to success, and which ranks me proud to be at your head. Let your confidence in me be as in times past; mine is assured to you. Let us unite all our efforts at the outset of a laborious campaign, and let us know, in the accomplishment of our task, how to inspire ourselves with the sentiments of patriotism which must be caused by the cry of 'Vive l'Empereur!'"

When a Battle may be looked for.

All eyes are now turned towards the Baltic,—for, in all human probability, ere this the British fleet under Sir Charles Napier has exchanged shots with the Russians. The first point of attack was to be the island of Aland. An order in the fleet affirms that an officer high in command, ventured, in a conference with Sir Charles Napier, to argue against attacking Aland, saying that such a carriage must occur in such an attack by ships without troops, there being about seven thousand Russian soldiers in the garrison on the island. The answer of Admiral Napier is stated to have been very characteristic—"If you think so, you had better go home again." The impression in the fleet was that Aland will be the scene of their first conflict.

The London Sun says:—

"A Berlin letter says that the Russians are transporting masses of rock along the ice in the Bay of Finland, to the site of the only navigable channel in front of Constadt, with the intention of there sinking them into the already shallow bed as soon as the ice breaks up. These gentlemen are taking their measures already for getting rid of these masses of rock by blasting, when they shall have done part of their service in causing the enemy's ships to run aground. A plan has been arranged by a man of the name of Jacobi, which has so far obtained the Emperor's approbation, that a very liberal reward has been promised him in case of success. It is of this nature—the blocks of rock are bored, and charged with blasting powder, previous to being placed on the ice over their future bed; the caissons containing the charges are provided with a wire connected with an electric battery in the forteps; and it is intended to carry into execution this interesting blasting experiment just when our craft are passing over the spot where these masses lie!"

The U. S. Revenue Cutter Berlin.

This craft has thus far had no eventful career. It has not been her fate, like that of the gallant Tiger, to be semi-wrecked in vainly attempting to climb a tree, or to engage in a desperate and dangerous trial of speed with a steam saw mill. The troubles of the Berlin have been legal; her enemies have been land-sharks. Something upwards of a year ago we saw this persecuted craft, a prisoner at La Crosse, while a Constable's notice, near at hand, announced, with fearful disregard for the rules of orthography, that she would be sold to satisfy a judgment of $5,75. We were told that this was only one of an infinite series of similar liabilities, for which the poor boat was then and there held in durance vile. How she escaped from the ferocious Constables of La Crosse, and became an U. S. vessel, we know not.

She is now coasting in these waters for the purpose of looking after Uncle Sam's saw-logs and shingles. Thus far she has not been very successful. To-day (Monday) she went out in command of Deputy Marshal and Timber Agent or Deputy Timber Agent OTIS for the purpose of seizing condignly a large raft belonging to H. S. ALLEN & Co., of Chippewa Falls. The raft was in charge of our friend LUCIUS MURPHY, who, when the U. S. craft came along-side, politely requested Mr. OTIS to produce his authority. Mr O. declined, but assured MURPHY that he was a Deputy Marshal, Timber Agent, &c. and requested him to surrender the raft. Mr. MURPHY, as might have been expected, very emphatically declined, and the Berlin being by no means a belligerent boat, returned to Prairie du Chien without having fired a gun. Mr. MURPHY and two of his crew were subsequently waited upon by our Deputy Marshal LECLERC with a warrant for their apprehension upon a charge of having resisted an U. S. Officer in the discharge of his duty; and brought before Court Commissioner I. B. BRUNSON. Upon their trial the question mainly argued was:—Had the officer any right to attempt the seizure of the raft without any process? The only authority offered in support of that right was the instruction of some officer at Washington, directing the Timber Agent in certain emergencies to seize, without process.

The Court Commissioner decided very properly, we think, that that instruction had not the authority of law, and that, consequently, there had been no wrongful resistance in this case. The accused were discharged from custody, and the Revenue Cutter Berlin will probably provide herself with the necessary papers before she resumes operations. She may find herself on the bottom of the river some fine morning, no matter how correct her papers may be. Better boats have sunk in better causes.—Crawford Co. Courier.

Another New Bank will soon be in operating in this place, with a capital of $50,000. Its stockholders and officers are among our most substantial business men. The introduction of this capital will be a great addition to the business facilities of this county and to Northern Wisconsin generally.—Green Bay Advocate.

FIRE AT DEPERE.—A Carriage Shop and Fanning Mill Manufactory owned by W. O. Kingsley, and a Blacksmith Shop belonging to R. Jackson, were destroyed by fire in the village of Depere, on the night of the 17th inst. The loss is not known. There was no insurance on any of the property burned.—Green Bay Advocate.

☞ Chas. Henderson, Esq., of Danville, Ky, has emancipated 23 of his slaves to go to Liberia, under the direction of the Kentucky Colonization Society, in the May expedition from that State. He has also purchased the husband of one of his women servants, at the price of $1000. He gives them a full outfit, and to the Kentucky Colonization Society $500.

Has Gov. Barstow Perjured Himself!

The Madison Democrat says that Gov. Barstow has appointed "the Hon. E. M. Hunter, late Senator from Milwaukee," his private Secretary.

The Constitution of this State, Section 12, Art. IV, says: "No member of the Legislature shall during the term for which he was elected, be appointed or elected to any civil office in the State, which shall have been created or the emoluments of which shall have been increased during the term for which he was elected"

On referring to the Legislative record we find that Senator Hunter's term of office will expire on the 1st of January, 1855; that "during the term for which he was elected," the office of Private Secretary to the Governor was "created," with a salary of $600 a year; that at the last session the "emoluments" of said office were "increased" to $1000 a year; and now the Democrat announces his "appointment" to a "civil office in the State," all within "the term for which he was elected."

Gov. Barstow has solemnly sworn to support the Constitution of the State. The above facts show him to have violated that instrument in every item relating to the said appointment.

Has he not perjured himself?—Evergreen City Times.

LOST BOY.—Horace Fowle, son of William Fowle, of the Village of Oak-Creek, ten miles south of Milwaukee on the Lake Road, left home some five weeks ago, and has not since been heard of.

He is fourteen years old, and had on, when he left, a suit of black jean, sack coat, a grey cotton polish cap, and a red and white comforter about the neck, the stripes running lengthwise. He is of large size square built, and stands straight. Auburn hair, inclining to curl.

His parents are most anxious for his return, and will gladly forward money to him if he is in need. If any of our readers know of the whereabouts of such a boy, they will confer a favor on his parents, by writing to them.

PROFESSOR WILSON.—The intelligence by the Arctic tells us that the master spirit of old Maga—Blackwood's Magazine—is dead. We are to have no more communion, save in memory, with the author of "Noctes Ambrosianæ" and "Dies Boreales"—no more songs from the singer of the "Isle of Palms," and the "City of the Plague," and no more gentle, yet brave romances from the sketcher of the "Light and Shadows of Scottish Life;" "The Foresters," and "The Trials of Margaret Lindsay." Close upon the solemn shade cast by the exit of Talfourd, move another, broader, and deeper and grander—the awful spectre Death, piloting John Wilson past the "dark valley and shadow," into the heaven of light and beauty, where, if any spirit has claim to move, the soul of "Christopher North" is now gloriously recreating.—N. Y. Mirror.

GOV. BARSTOW, Comptroller Dennis, Attorney General Smith, Berish Brown, and H. T. Sanders, are on their way to Washington. Various reasons are assigned for the mission, but the real one no doubt, is to help revive the Valley Road Bill.—Kenosha Democrat.

GOING AHEAD.—When David Crockett originated this significant expression, he doubtless little dreamed that it would ever be applied to Manitowoc; yet it has frequently been used in connection with our thrift and progress, and never with more propriety than now. A large amount of building is going forward and much more is contemplated. Activity prevails in all branches of trade, and the town presents a scene of bee-hive industry, without a drone.—Manitowoc Herald.

A GREAR YIELD!—CENTRE AHEAD!—MR N. M. Hepbner, who has taken some pains to ascertain the facts, informs us that the crop of Winter Wheat raised in the town of Centre, in 1853, ranged from 35 to 42 bushels of fine plump seed per acre on new clean land. On rough, stubble land, where the trees had been cut off, logged and burned, and the seed merely scattered and dragged in, the average yield was 20 bushels to the acre.

There is an abundance of good land in that town, owned by non-residents and speculators, which can be purchased at from $1,75 to $2,50 per acre. All that is now needed in that locality is an accession of practical and industrious farmers.—Appleton Crescent.

NEW MOTIVE POWER.—A correspondent of the Syracuse Standard, writing from Rochester, speaks of the discovery of a new motive power, which is to dispense with the present mode of steam propulsion, and is a great improvement upon all former discoveries. He says:

"It consists in the use of bi-sulphate of carbon as a motive power. An engine has been constructed which works like a charm. The expansive force of this material, as every chemist knows, is many times greater than that of steam, while at the same time it requires a much less degree of heat to vaporize it.—I will give you the result of an experiment with a miniature steam engine. It requires the constant use of eight spirit lamps to generate steam enough from water to cause it to make one hundred and fifty revolutions per minute. Withdraw two of the lamps, and keep them away twenty minutes, then apply the bi-sulphate of carbon, and there was heat enough remaining to propel the engine at the rate of one thousand times a minute. And this will apply on a large scale just as well. This substance being so easily evaporated, heat from twenty to one hundred and sixty degrees is found sufficient for all purposes. Hence there is no danger of explosion as with steam. It is confidently believed that this new motive power is destined to supersede the use of steam. The inventor has applied for letters patent."

Boston, April 22.

The resolve for a permanent monument to Daniel Webster passed this morning by a vote of 21 to 184.

Last night an affray occurred between students and several fire companies near Cambridge, and the Mayor called out the militia to quell the riot, the fire companies gaining the mastery, but one of them was seriously wounded.

FIRST ARRIVAL.—Bright and early last Wednesday morning, shining in her new spring dress, the Fashion, commanded by Capt. NEWBERRY, arrived at this port—the first of the season. She discharged a heavy load, and took away another the evening following the morning she came here She will be regular in her trips between Green Bay and Chicago.—Green Bay Advocate.

Marseilles cargoes out of the question, and which are mostly all Black Sea re-shipments, we find that about one third of the year's supply was directly or indirectly shipped from Russia, or the ports which become affected by a war with Russia. This is a most important point, and requires particular notice.

With the above facts in view, there does not seem room for any other conclusion than the one to which our dealers and farmers have generally arrived, to-wit: that, as the result of a scanty supply abroad, prices, even if subject to enormous fluctuations, must keep up to a high rate; and farmers may therefore look for a ready market for the surplus produce of their teeming fields. We are glad to learn that, throughout the State, the growing wheat promises well.

We annex our weekly prices current, corrected to date:

POLICE COURT, April 24.

BREAKING WINDOWS.—A boy named James L. Savage was arrested and brought up by the Marshal, charged with breaking a window on Huron Street. He was sent to jail to await a trial this morning. This boy is a son of Charles A. Savage, who some y[illegible], was register of deeds of this county, but now dead. The boy has neither parent living, is an orphan unadvanced and destitute—a proper subject for a house of refuge, not for a jail.

A woman named Margaret O'Heara, was bro't down from jail by constable Kessler, where she has been kept since Saturday night, on a charge of assault and battery upon the wife of Martin Morrise. She was tried and found guilty, and sentenced to a fine of ten dollars and costs, the Justice telling her that if the fine was not sufficient to meet the purpose of preventing a repetition of her many acts of violence, if it was paid, he should also place her under bonds to keep the peace. The woman seemed to treat the whole matter carelessly, although she has a family of small children. Before leaving, she suggested that Martin was a scamp, and then asked, "what will become of the children," and left the court, making faces at the constable. We might ask what will become of the children; the father dead—felled to the ground by a club in the hands of his wife and left weltering in his blood, but a few days before his death, it is rumored; the mother in jail, the children are now orphans.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. C. DERBY, late of Buffalo, now of New York advertises the forthcoming collection of the remarkable sayings of Mrs. PARTINGTON, the friend and assistant editor of the Boston Post. Good dame Ruth Partington and her irreverent boy Jesse, have already gained a name in the world, and the collection will be a popular one.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.—a horse has, probably frightened at the long German word in the advertisement, "which see, and make a note of."

WANT is in the field again, with a batch of new advertisements, to which we cannot do justice in a peragraph.

A LAND AGENCY at Sheboygan is introduced to our readers by GEO. W. COLE, who has on sale a large quantity of valuable land. We advise new comers to examine his advertisement.

WELLS & BRIGHAM offer sundry lots of REAL ESTATE; among the rest a very desirable farm in one of the most beautiful and fertile portions of the State.

ATWATER & LANGRISHE'S Theatrical Company, after a long absence, have come back, with much praise from the country press, and offer an attractive bill to our Milwaukee public.

BRADFORD & BROTHER have received the Spring styles of Prints, to which the attention of the ladies is invited.

The IRVING BOOKSTORE advertises that most excellent and reliable work, Elliot's Fruit Book, besides other things.

ARNOLD & WILSON notify the literary public of their receipt of the Sayings of Dame PARTINGTON, about alluded to, and of many other late and interesting books.

ATKINS & STEELE have built upon a new idea in the way of advertising, that of asking us to invite the people to look at their stock of neat foot gear. We can do no less than comply with so reasonable a request.

O. H. WALDO offers a house and lot for sale or to rent, well located and desirable.

THE MILWAUKEE CITY GUARDS give notice to likely men who wish to "go a sogering" that now is the time for them to drill for the war, and prepare for stirring times. "In peace prepare for war."

A CARD.—The Secretary of the trustees of St. Almilianus Orphan Asylum, is, through the indefatigable and untiring exertions of the lady managers of the Fair, held at Young's Hall, for the benefit of the orphan boys, enabled to acknowledge with gratitude the receipt of the handsome sum of over $1100, being the nett proceeds of the Fair. May these good ladies and others, who so kindly interested themselves in behalf of these destitute children, meet with the reward which their noble and generous efforts so truly merit, and for which the orphans will ever pray.

☞ The Steamer Traveller, Captain Cooper, arrived from Chicago, on Sunday afternoon, with a large load of passengers and freight. This is the first trip of the Traveller since getting her new shaft.

☞ The Saloon under Dandee's Store, Martin's Block, formerly kept by Mr. Kellogg, has been taken by Mr. Weidou, and will be opened on the first day of May, as a Saloon and Refectory.

WITCHELL.—This remarkable personator of character, ventriloquist, and queer genius generally, gives one more—and his last—performance this evening. Those who have not seen him, and wish to do so, will not be likely to have another opportunity very soon.

☞ The steamer E. K. Collins, Capt. BUTLIN arrived from Chicago, yesterday afternoon with 293 passengers, 75 tons freight and several horses.

VESSELS SAILED.—The following vessels left their moorings yesterday and went down the river, on their way to Buffalo;

Schrs. Hagar, Kirk White, and Arcturus.

A BRIDGE ACROSS THE MENOMONEE.—The Free Democrat, noticing the opening of the new Bridge at Walker's Point says:

We now have two good and substantial bridges, and very much need another across the Menomonee at the R. R. Depot. The apology for a bridge over the river at that point, is a miserable old rickety concern, and will soon be entirely used up, as the amount of travel over it is enormous.

We have expressed our sentiment's to the same effect, several times. Messrs. Aldermen of the Fourth and Fifth Wards, now do something for your Country!

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—CALEB WALL sells this morning two houses and a lot on Jackson Street, and a house and lot on Marshall Street. Also a lot of Sugars in the afternoon. See advertisement.

THE STATE FAIR.—We learn from Mr. INGHAM, Secy. of the State Agricultural Society that the Fair for next fall is located here, and that the pleasant and convenient grounds on Spring St. Hill have been secured for the purpose.

SUPREME COURT REPORTER. Mr. HUNTER, Private Secretary to GEO. BARSTOW, and Senator from Milwaukee County, was in town, a day or two since, urging his claims to be appointed Reported to the Supreme Court. Laying aside the Constitutional bar to their appointment—the Governor having set the fashion of disregarding such slight impediments—we think that there are other and obvious reasons why Mr. HUNTER should not be made Reporter. He has neither the industry, ability, or legal knowledge, requisite for the office, and has no shadow of claim to it, except it be as a reward for party services. Judge SMITH, who has himself thus far prepared the reports for publication, is entirely competent to the task. But if it be thought necessary or advisable to appoint a special Reporter, let the office be conferred upon some member of the Bar, who stands well with the Profession, and would satisfactorily serve the public.

WISCONSIN BONDS.—On the 19th inst. in New York among the sales of bonds and stocks made at auction by Stimson Draper, we perceive $1000 Wisconsin State, 12 per cent interest added, at 100.—Wisconsin.

Not exactly, even with the miserable management of its present rulers; our State is not so low in market as to dispose of 12 per cent bonds at par yet. The bonds were Improvement Bonds, not State Bonds at all, though so entered on the list of sales.

The Southern Convention.

The Convention of delegates from different Southern States, recently assembled at Charleston, has closed its labors and adiourned, without dissolving our present Union, or forming a new one. The New York Tribune thus sums up the more important proceedings of their session:

1. To exclude the reporter of The Tribune, because we speak plainly what all northern men think in their hearts, and endeavor to teach the South its duty and interest, not only as touching these frequent epileptic fits of aimless and useless Conventions, but also as regards the great curse of Slavery; 2. To build a railroad to the Pacific by special southern combination—as though the railroad could be helped forward an hour by all the palaver of the score of declaimers of the Convention; 3. To trade directly from the South with Europe—as though such direct trade were not wanting simply because capital is wanting, and capital and slavery cannot go together in sufficient quantities to build up commercial cities—New Orleans forming no exception, being simply an outlet for the great five western valley's; 4. To print their own books and make their own tools and machinery—when Arts cannot flourish with Slavery, and Inventive Genius sickens and dies amid Chivalry—so that whether it be a Fitch, Evans, Fulton, Whitney, or Blanchard, the inventor must come from the North—the South meanwhile having the monopoly of "great men,"—that is politicians with exorbitant influence, growing out of the existence of an ignorant white population; 5. To "open up" a trade with the region of the Amazon, a river which flows parallel with the Equator, and whose banks are nearer like Dante's Inferno than anything else we know of, except that they are less populous—hot, pestilential, serpent-haunted; insect infested, dead-dealing, nasty, and ridiculous to think of outside of the tropical poetry of a Southern Convention; 6. To establish a Commission of Three,—composed of Gen. Scott," who has "more brains than he gets credit for," and is "a tall man, taller than the Emperor Nicholas,"—of Millard Fillmore, and of Mr. Buller of S. C., to proceed forthwith to Europe to act as mediators between Russia and her opponents, England and France; 7. To hear a scientific exposition from Parson Brownlow of Tennessee, informing the world why "young gentlemen chew "cloves and cinnamon"—which is to disguise the smell of liquor when they sit next their sweethearts in pews,—and also, a story from the same politico-economical orthodox expounder on a young lady who would not put her arm through a jug-handle as she called a certain Young America who was intemperate; 8, 9 and 10, &c. To cause water generally to run up hill—the Gulf Stream to go the back track, the laws of gravitation to cease, the canons of political economy to come to an end, the virtue of the Declaration of Independence to vanish, the value of Industry and the Respectability of Labor to be forgotten.

Upon these sayings and doings the Tribune comments briefly and sharply. We annex the concluding paragraphs of its article:

Well, the Convention has met and has parted; has twaddled about capital and trade and progress; and has sworn a new fealty to Slavery, and poverty, and weakness and deterioration. So they will go on. They will meet, and meet, and meet—and Norfolk and Charleston will remain villages; and the 40,000 people just shown by the Virginia journals to exist in the State beyond ten of reading and writing will increase; and the people of small means who must live by labor, will continue to desert the soil of Slavery for that of liberty; and the 400,000 immigrants will pour into the North-west and avoid the South more and more; and the trade of the North-east and West will augment along with their arts and manufactures, and polished civilization.

Such is the sad and simple truth of this matter, and we utter it accordingly. We are sorry to have so disagreeable a duty to discharge, but it cannot be helped. It is plain what ails the South, but her politicians and journalists and conventioners refuse to see it. She languishes for want of varied industry—mechanics and tradesmen—of farmers, artists, inventors, savans—but such men will not seek a slave-doomed country when liberty beckons them or holds them to free soil.—And up to the time that the South seriously prepares to abolish slavery, it will remain inferior to the North in self supporting power and all the elements of the progress she would emulate without adopting its conditions. The great secret of the astonishing growth and the immense resources of the free States, is nothing else than liberty and democracy. Where they exist, fussy Conventions to encourage and attract trade by long-winded and shallow speeches are not needed; where they do not, a whole nation of orators might spout forever without the slightest effect.

Trip of the Northener.

The Chicago Press of yesterday morning, published the following letter:

Detroit April 21st, 1855.

B. S. SHEPARD ESQ:—Dear Sir—I have made a trip per steamboat Northener bound for Mackinaw, which place we could not reach on account of ice. The boat reached De Tour, the entrance to Sau St. Marie, where she landed 25 passengers for Lake Superior, and from accounts by these that first came down, navigation will not be open for two weeks. We saw on our way to Mackinac a brig to the North of that place some distance in the ice, supposed to be one that loaded in the St. Clair River with lumber. The ice had the appearance of being very strong for ten miles to the eastward of Mackinac. We could not approach nearer than the foot of Bois Blanc. The steamer Michigan, one propeller and three brigs appeared to be laying against the strong ice, abreast of Bois Blanc Light House with at least five miles of floating ice to the eastward, which the wind was blowing into the Straits, it being southeast. We left the ice at 3 o'clock, saw propeller Niagara and steamer Columbia backing out of south passage, and this morning at 10 o'clock propeller Ohio, 15 miles to southward of Point Aux. Barques, three schooners and two brigs; could not make them out. Passed 43 brigs and schooners in St. Clair River, and Lake, and Detroit River; 25 at least were bound for Lake Michigan, 4 propellers lay at Port Sarnia, Michigan, Prairie State, and St. Lawrence. Could not make out the fourth.

From the knowledge I have of the action of ice in the straits I think it will be at least ten days before anything can pass through. I shall remain here until the Northener returns from Cleveland when the Captain thinks he can effect a landing at Mackinaw; the report of two vessels and one propeller ashore at Presque isle I think is not correct for we ran the coast up and down by day light and saw nothing along shore. Suppose those in the ice near Mackinaw to be the ones reported ashore. Respectfully yours

SUNK.—The propeller Princeton, of J. L. Hurd & Co's line, sunk on Tuesday night, about three miles below Barcelona,—having sprung a lenk a short time after leaving port. The lenk was occasioned by the ice in the Lake. The Oswego immediately went to her assistance; and the U. S. steamer Michigan, at last advices, was about to proceed to the scene of the disaster, for the same purpose. No loss of life is mentioned in any of the telegraphic despatches from Dunkirk relative to the occurrence. The latest one received stated, without explanation, that fifteen men were on the ice. As a message received a short time previously said that a portion of the crew had been got on land, and the remainder had been sent for, it is to be presumed that the fifteen men spoken of in the subsequent dispatch were a portion of the crew who had not yet been got ashore.—Detroit Free Press 23d.

This is the first arrival this season at Detroit of goods by any cheap freighting route.—Detroit Advertiser Friday.

AN ACT

To amend chapter eighty-six of the revised statutes, and for other purposes.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. All the provisions of chapter eighty-six of the revised statutes, and all other provisions of law conferring upon county courts jurisdiction to try and determine civil actions, appeals, or certioraris, are hereby repealed: Provided, That this act shall not affect the jurisdiction of said courts in respect to probate matter or proceedings, and shall not apply to or affect the county court of the county of Milwaukee.

Sec. 2. There shall be held in each county of this state, organized for judicial purposes, such number of jury terms and of law terms of the circuit court as the legislature may, from time to time, deem necessary, and provide for not less than two terms in each year. At such law terms the court may hear and determine all motions and questions of law, all suits or proceedings in equity, or other business not requiring a trial or juquest by a jury.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect on the first day of July next, and all suits and proceedings then pending and undetermined in any such county court, and which, by the provisions of this act shall be deemed to be pending therein, and shall thereafter be proceeded with, tried, determined, and completed in the same manner as if originally commenced in or appealed to said circuit court.

Approved, April 3, 1854.
WILLIAM A. BARSTOW.

RE-CAPTURE OF THORNTON AND HOFFMAN.—We published last week, an account of the escape of two noted villains, Thornton and Hoffman, by leaping from the cars in shackles, while on the way to Auburn State Prison, The Troy Times, of Monday evening, announces that the rogues have been recaptured, and placed safely in the prison at Auburn. The particulars of the arrest are not given.—Albany Atlas.

WHEAT IN OAKLAND.—We regret to learn that the wheat in this vicinity, unless protected by woods or hills, or in some other way, is very seriously winter killed. The proportion of the crop damaged is variously estimated from one to three quarters. Last fall our wheat looked finely, and the present appearance of the crop was caused by ice, and exposure the past winter. From a pretty careful examination of several pieces of wheat near here, we incline to the opinion that the crop is injured, but should think that the fears of our farmer friends had exaggerated the condition of their fields.—Pontiac Jacksonian.

AN EXTENSIVE FARMER.—EX Governor Trimble, of Ohio, owns 4,000 acres of prairie in a single tract, in the neighborhood of Morrow and within the county he has 15,000 acres which are devoted to grazing purposes.

Circulation of the London Times.

We made an erroneous statement a few days since, relative to the circulation of the London Times. The average circulation of the several London Dailies, during the last year was as follows:

Daily News	3,734	Herald	4,049
Express	2,102	Post	2,657
Globe	2,032	Standard	1,318
Advertiser	7,346	Sun	2,153

☞ Judge Pollock has accepted the Whig nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania, with "the resolutions annexed," which are strongly anti-Nebraska,

☞ The Boston Advertiser in noticing the Hulseman Letter hoax of the Evening Post, says: "It has has been long known to some of the friends of both these gentlemen, that Mr. Everett, at Mr. Webster's request, while he was quite ill, wrote the draft of a letter, which Mr. Webster adopted with additions, as his reply to Mr. Hulsemann; and that Mr. Webster some time before his death, declared his intention of announcing this fact, but was induced by certain considerations to postpone it, leaving the papers, however, in a state for future publication."

The above brief paragraph contains a true version of the whole story. The malicious object of the Post's fabrication—to alienate from Mr. Everett the friends of Mr. Webster—has entirely miscarried; and only served to vindicate the truth of history.—N. Y. Mirror.

☞ An intelligent writer estimates that at least 14,000 persons were prepared to leave Sweden and Norway for this country, on the 1st of March last. This vast emigration affects materially the price of land in those countries. Farms worth three or four thousand dollars have been sold for $800, so eager are their owners to find a home in the New World.

"We are given to understand," says the Citizen of the 10th of February, (East India Paper,) "that the famous Car of Juggernaut of Mahes, near Serampore, was totally destroyed by fire on the night of Monday last, and the 'Odekuttas,' or proprietors of Juggernaut, have been merged in grief, attributing the accident to the fury of the god for causes of which they are not cognizant."

☞ It is said that the Corbins and not the Jennings, are the heirs to the Jennings estate in England, estimated at $200,000,000. It goes to the relatives of J's wife, who was a Corbin.—The heirs are now said to mostly live in Virginia.

REFUSED.—The bills of Clark's Banking House, at Burlington, Iowa, were refused at the bank yesterday morning. We have not learned the cause.—Detroit Advertiser, Friday.

A large fleet of sail vessels passed up the river yesterday afternoon, without touching at our docks. Most of them were loaded. They presented a beautiful appearance, as, with all sails spread, they skimed over the surface of on. magnificent river.—Detroit Free Press, 22d.

THE WAY TO THE ALTAR—MATRIMONY MADE EASY; Or, How to win a Lover.

"Love rules the court, the camp, the grove,
For love is Heaven, and Heaven is love."
So sang the lastly for thousands plus
For love—of life the light divine—
Who did they know some gentle charm,
The hearts of those they love to warm.
Might live, might die, to bliss supreme,
Possessing all of which they dream.
The road to Wedlock is plain and know,
Delay not, but to ROUNDOUT go.
Time flies and from his gloomy wings
A shadow rise on living things;
Then there is no chance and years will pass,
Ere fall the hair stands through the glass:
At least the present is your own,
While all the future may be gone.
A happy matrimonial man or maid
May now secure by ROUNDOUT's aid.

Professor ROUNDOUT, of New York, formerly of Sardinia, where he has resided many years, having at short notice Cards of happy marriages, will send to any address, on receipt of one DOLLAR, post paid, plain directions to enable Ladies or Gentlemen to win the affections of as many of the opposite sex as they may desire. The plan is so simple, but so captivating, that all may be married, irrespective of age, appearance or position; and last, though not least, it can be managed with the utmost care and secrecy. Address Professor ROUNDOUT, New York City, post paid.

I have no agents, and any person advertising themselves as such are [illegible] swindlers, and I will prosecute them as the law directs.

N. B.—This is no humbug, but one of the greatest sciences the world ever produced, which thousands of ladies and gentlemen in the City of New York can attest to. No one will ever regret the price paid. Be sure and write plain address. All letters promptly replied and plainly directed may depend at the Professor's risk. mr31-3nowdy Mo)

Proposes to pay Particular attention to Architectural Iron Work.

WE are prepared to Manufacture IRON FRONTS for Stores and Public Buildings, with the Patent Fire Proof Rolling Shutters.

These Shutters are the same that are now so generally used in New York, and may be put in any Window, Small or Large, and if arranged before erection of the building, may be used without in the least affecting the style of Architecture. They make the only perfect Fire Proof Shutters, and do not appear to the eye when rolled up.

We shall be fully prepared to furnish the Patent for Store Fronts, (with or without the Patent Shutter,) with estimate for the Cost of the work finished ready for delivery. To our Western friends we think this arrangement will be desirable, for they then are enabled to know without experiment what the Front is to be, and what it is to cost.

When the Patent Shutters are used we will furnish a man to superintend the erection of the Iron Front and the setting of the Shutters.
